Intervenors.

Pursuant to Rule 24(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, plaintiffs, who are all investors in various Aequitas investment products, move the court to permissively intervene on grounds that they have claims that will or could be affected by the relief sought by the parties in this case. Specifically, plaintiffs have objections to paragraph 17 C of the Proposed Order Appointing Receiver (Docket #2), which seeks to prohibit parties from enforcing claims against any of a wide variety of properties or entities. Additionally, plaintiffs have an interest in this litigation, as all are victims of the scheme described in the complaint, and wish to have their interests represented.
